

The Great Summer Ride promotion: up to £250 off the UK's widest range of electric scooters and bikes

evstores has now launched the widest choice of electric scooters and bikes through their Park Lane showroom in London. On show are the e-max, ElectriCycle Retro, Electro 5.0 and City, the Vectrix VX-1 and VX-1E and Quantya. Ranging from 'learner-legal' 30 mph through to exciting top speeds of 65 mph. Choose from scooters, maxi-scooters, enduro, retro and business scooters: they are all represented. Battery choices include maintenance-free Silicon, Lithium-ion and Ni-MH and give a range of up to 55 miles!

Marketing Manager Phil Retsas says that never before has such a great choice brought together in one convenient location to view and test electric scooters and bikes. "Summer is here and never before have these electric bikes made so much sense: beat congestion, cheap to run, quiet and clean: easy on your wallet and the environment". Electric bikes enjoy free parking in Westminster and, like all motor bikes, can currently use buslanes*.

To celebrate the arrival of such a great choice evstores offers of up to £250,-** discount on to customers who buy before 21 June 2009. Electric bikes already make a great deal of economic sense and with our special Summer Offer evstores is helping everybody through this credit crunch.
